An efficient warehouse management system is imperative for businesses to grow. With on-hand inventory, companies will immensely benefit from using a warehouse management system, which makes inventory control efficient and smooth leading to accuracy, speed and reduced operating expenses.

After Covid-19, it is anticipated that digitalisation across the logistics sector will be accelerated with new normal digital shipments and contact-less deliveries. With the boom in e-commerce, online groceries, retail, etc. demand for warehouse equipment and management software is increasing rapidly. Soon warehousing in India will emerge as a new growth sector.

About the Show

To provide a platform for the warehousing sector to converge and work together in achieving solutions to warehousing and logistics problems, Ace Exhibitions organises the Warehousing Equipment and Tech Show 2022 on September 7-9, 2022, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. The most comprehensive three-day B2B event will see the largest gathering of exhibitors, business buyers and investors, and qualitative industrial and corporate visitors, thus making the show the largest in India.

The expo aims to facilitate the complete ecosystem of warehousing. It is a perfect place to get connected with manufacturers, suppliers, distributors, solution providers, engineers, tech experts, logistics automation experts, warehousing infrastructure experts, supply chain consultants and others.

The platform is where you can connect with buyers from across the supply chain and end-user markets. The trade show will focus on the major developments in the warehousing sector and will bring under one roof significant solutions and innovative technologies to make businesses grow efficiently.

The show offers an exclusive opportunity to manufacturers, suppliers, distributors and service providers to showcase their latest products, innovations, and technologies and develop their business and distribution network, thereby expanding into new markets.
